

Carl Clark, MD

President & CEO

WellPower

As the President & CEO of WellPower, Dr. Clark inspires a culture of innovation and well-being by delivering strengths-based, person-centered, culturally-proficient services as well as employing trauma-informed, evidence-based practices. Under his leadership, WellPower has recently been named a finalist for a 2018 World Changing Idea Award from Fast Company Magazine, and recently won the 2018 Excellence in Behavioral Healthcare Management Award from the National Council for Behavioral Health. WellPower is proud to be a national Top Place to Work, a Top Work Place in Healthcare by DiversityJobs.com and a Denver Post Top Work Place for 10 years running.

About Dr. Clark

Top 5 Strengths

Learner, Ideation, Self-Assurance, Maximizer, Individualization

Follow Dr. Clark

@WellPowerDrCarl

Email

Carl.Clark@wellpower.org

Phone

303-504-6649

Education

- 1990, National Board Certification in General Psychiatry
- 1988-89, Colorado State Hospital, Forensic Career Resident
- 1985-88, University of Colorado, Resident in Psychiatry
- 1984-85, University of Colorado, Intern in Community Medicine
- 1980-84, University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center, Doctorate of Medicine
- 1978-80, University of Oklahoma, B.S. in Zoology with Honors
- 1976-78, Tulsa Junior College, Associates Degree in Liberal Arts

Personal Awards

- 2018 Global Alliance for Behavioral Health and Social Justice, Global Alliance Recognition
- 2015 Centus Samaritan Award
- 2015 Denver Post Strength In Health Innovation in Healthcare Award, Finalist
- 2013 Colorado Business Magazine CEO of the Year, Finalist
- 2012 Mental Health America of Colorado (MHAC) Tribute to Leadership Award
- 2010 American Psychiatric Association Distinguished Fellow
- 2010 Denver Regional Council of Governments Distinguished Service Award
- 2008 Samaritan Institute National Award
- 2008 Denver's 150 Unsung Heroes Making a Difference

Current Board Positions

- Colorado Access, Board Chair
- Caring for Colorado Foundation
- Colorado Behavioral Healthcare Council, Past Board Chair
- Colorado School of Public Health Behavioral Health Initiative Advisory Board
- National Council for Behavioral Health
- Caring 4 Denver Foundation
- New Health Ventures
- Access Diversified Services
- Institute for Children's Mental Disorders

Organizational Awards Under Dr. Clark's Leadership

- 2021 ColoradoBiz Magazine Best Behavioral Health Provider
- 2021 National Top Workplace Award
- 2021 Top Employer in Healthcare by DiversityJobs.com
- 2019 Association for Learning Environments (A4LE), Community Award for Dahlia Campus for Health & Well-being
- 2019 Cigna Well-Being Award
- 2018 Fast Company Magazine World Changing Ideas Finalist
- 2018 National Council Excellence in Behavioral Health Care Management Award
- 2018 US Green Building Council Innovative Project Award
- Denver Post Top Workplaces for 8 Years Running
- 2017 International Association for Public Participation, International Core Values Award
- 2017 LEED Gold Designation for the Dahlia Campus for Health & Well-being
- 2017 Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. Health Promotion Award for the Dahlia Campus for Health & Well-being
- 2016 Mayor's Design Award, Building Well and Living Well category for the Dahlia Campus for Health & Well-being